Best Start Foods is a prepaid card that can help you buy healthy foods like milk or fruit.

The amount you get on your prepaid card will change depending on the age of your child. The Best Start Foods payments are:

- £19.80 every 4 weeks during pregnancy – the payment amount is per pregnancy. This means the payment amount is the same whether you're pregnant with one baby, or if you're having twins or triplets
- £39.60 every 4 weeks from your child being born up until they're one year old
- £19.80 every 4 weeks when your child is between the ages of one and 3 years old

WHEN

From start of pregnancy to child's 3rd birthday.

WHO

You qualify if you are pregnant, or responsible for a child under 3 and receiving:

- UC and have earned no more than £726 a month in either of the last two complete monthly assessment periods
- CTC (not WTC) with annual income of £18,725 or less
- CTC and WTC with annual income of £8,717 or less
- Housing benefit with weekly income of £358 or less
- Income support, income-based jobseeker's allowance, income-related employment and support allowance or pension credit.
- You can also qualify if you are under 18 or aged 18/19 and a named dependent in someone else's claim

Claim by telephoning 0800 182 2222 or visit www.mygov.scot/best-start

You continue to get credits on the card for 8 weeks if you no longer qualify through UC. If you notify Social Security Scotland that you are entitled through UC again within 12 weeks, you can become entitled to Best Start Foods again without having to make a claim.

EDUCATION MAINTENANCE ALLOWANCES

WHAT

An Education Maintenance Allowance (EMA) is a weekly allowance of £30 paid to the young person during the school year. (During Term Time)

It is paid on a two-weekly basis.

WHEN

An EMA provides financial support for 16–19-year-olds who stay on at school. You should apply as soon as you become eligible as payments may not be backdated.

Students become eligible for an EMA in August if they turn 16 between 1 March 2022 and 30 September 2022 and in January if they turn 16 between 1 October 2022 and end of February 2023.

WHO

To be eligible for an EMA in 2023/2024 the student must:

- The start date of your EMA will depend on the date of your sixteenth birthday.
- Have been born between 1 March 2004 and 28 February 2008
- Be in full-time non-advanced education (up to SVQ level 3).

The young person qualifies if your annual household income is:

Household Income	No. of dependent children in Household
£0 to £24,421	1
£0 - £26,884	2+

YOUNG CARERS GRANT

WHAT

The Young Carer Grant is a yearly payment of £359.65 for young carers in Scotland. How the grant is spent is up to you, there is no need to provide receipts.

WHEN

To be able to get a Young Carer Grant, you must:

- Be 16, 17 or 18 years old
- Have been caring for 1,2 or 3 people for an average of 16 hours per week for at least the last 3 months.

If you care for more than one person, you can combine the hours of the people you care for to average 16 hours per week.

WHO

You can get a Young Carer Grant if all of these apply:

- You're 16, 17 or 18 years old
- You've been caring for one or more people for around 16 hours per week for the last 3 months
- The person or people you care for get certain benefits
- You're not being paid to care for someone you will use in your application as part of your job
- You're not helping care for the people you apply for as a volunteer, for example as part of a care group or charity
- You're not already getting Carer's Allowance from the Department for Work and Pensions

STATE BENEFITS/ALLOWANCES

WHAT

If the young person stays on at school, you may still be able to receive Child Benefit and a Child Element top-up to either your Child Tax Credit or Universal Credit even if they have reached the age of 16.

This can be as much as £24 per week for Child Benefit and £72.69 per week for Child Tax Credit or Universal Credit.

WHEN

These entitlements can continue from when the young person turns 16 until the September following their 19th birthday providing the course they are enrolled in is non-advanced (Studying Highers or less) and it is considered to be a full-time course (at least 12 hours per week).

WHO

Child Benefit and the Child element top-up to either Child Tax Credit or Universal Credit normally stops on the 31 August following your young person's 16th birthday.

Providing you continue to meet the qualifying conditions for Child Benefit, Child Tax Credits or Universal Credit and your young person is on a course of non-advanced study (Studying Highers or less) and it is considered to be a full-time course (at least 12 hours per week).

You must notify HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC) for Child Benefit and Child Tax Credit or your work coach at the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) for Universal Credit.

CHILD DISABILITY/CARER BENEFITS

If a member of your family has a disability or long-term health condition, or is an unpaid carer for someone, you may be able to get some extra help – for example parents of disabled children can get disability benefits without taking into account their income.

CHILD DISABILITY PAYMENT

Child Disability Payment (CDP) provides support for the extra costs that a child with a disability might have.

- You can apply for Child Disability Payment for a child under 16 with mental or physical disabilities.
- You can also apply for Child Disability Payment if the child's disability has not yet been diagnosed. In such cases, you can tell Social Security Scotland about any symptoms they have and how they're affected.

The CDP rate is between £26.90 per week and £172.75 a week and depends on the level of help your child needs.

CARERS ALLOWANCE

You may be eligible for Carers Allowance if you, the person you care for and the type of care you provide meets certain criteria.

www.gov.uk/carers-allowance

You could get £76.75 a week if you:

- Care for someone at least 35 hours a week
- Get certain benefits
- Earn less than £139 per week

CARERS ALLOWANCE SUPPLEMENT

Carer's Allowance Supplement is an extra payment for people in Scotland who get Carer's Allowance on a particular date.

2023 PAYMENTS

The first payment was on 10 June. It was £270.50. You'll have got it if you were getting Carer's Allowance on 11 April 2022.

The second payment is in December and will be £270.50. You'll get this if you get Carer's Allowance on 10 October 2022. The reason it's double the amount of the last payment is in recognition of the pressures unpaid carers face because of the pandemic.

WHO CAN HELP?

Many families don't get all the financial assistance and benefits they are entitled to. This may be because they are unaware of their entitlement, the rules are complex or because they have been wrongly refused.

If you are on a low income, you may be able to get some help even if you haven't claimed before or if you think you won't qualify.
